

Counting Birds

Let's  Read

 The Asia Foundation

Bo and Grandma took a walk in the park.

Kitty, want some corn? – Bo asked.

Grandma, this bird wants my corn.

One bird is eating corn.

Oh, two birds are eating corn.

Grandma, look, three birds are eating my corn.

Now, four birds are eating corn.

One, two, three, four...

- Ah, five birds are eating my corn.

Woa, it's great to watch these birds eating corn. - Bo thought.

I want to have a bird for myself.

Zero bird is eating corn. So there is no bird now.

Grandma smiled.

- Don't be sad, sweetie, the birds are just flying home.
