

The Crow Family Grows Rice

ສຸກພະຈັນ ໄຊເສນາ

ບານ່າ

Let's  Read

 The Asia Foundation

Crow's family lives in the countryside.

This is the season to grow rice.
Crow plows the paddy.

Crow and his family sow rice seeds.

The seeds grow into seedlings.
The crows pull the seedlings up to move them.

The crows carefully move the seedlings to another field.

Many months pass.

The paddy is full of mature, yellow rice stalks.

The crows harvest the rice stalks.

The crows remove the rice stalks from the paddy.

The crows remove the rice from the stalks.
Then the crows dry the rice.

The crows pound the rice.
That removes the husk from the rice.

The crows store the rice in the rice barn.

What a lovely aroma.

The freshly steamed rice smells so nice.

Come, come, come.

Have some aromatic rice with Crow's family.

This work was created with the support of the All Children Reading: A Grand Challenge for Development (ACR GCD) Founding Partners (the United States Agency for International Development [USAID], World Vision, and the Australian Government) in partnership with the Global Book Alliance. This work was prepared by The Asia Foundation and does not necessarily reflect the views of ACR GCD Founding Partners or the Global Book Alliance. Such modifications or translations are not an official translation of the ACR GCD, and ACR GCD will not be liable for any content or errors in this translation.

Pum Anh Lao is a nonprofit, social enterprise that publishes children's books and promotes reading for disadvantaged groups. Pum Anh conducts writers' workshops with children and adults to develop stories – including for children with disabilities and for ethnic minorities. Pum Anh has developed, designed and illustrated a wide range of teaching and reading materials for UN agencies and NGOs, working closely with the Ministry of Education and Sports and the Ministry of Information,

Culture and Tourism.

Pum Anh Lao is a nonprofit, social enterprise that publishes children's books and promotes reading for disadvantaged groups. Pum Anh conducts writers' workshops with children and adults to develop stories – including for children with disabilities and for ethnic minorities. Pum Anh has developed, designed and illustrated a wide range of teaching and reading materials for UN agencies and NGOs, working closely with the Ministry of Education and Sports and the Ministry of Information,

Culture and Tourism.

Brought to you by

The Asia Foundation

Let's Read is an initiative of The Asia Foundation's Books for Asia program that fosters young readers in Asia and the Pacific.

booksforasia.org

To read more books like this and get further information about this book, visit letsreadasia.org

Original Story

ກາເຮັດນາ (The Crow Family Grows Rice), Author: ສຸກພະຈັນ ໄຊເສນາ.

Illustrator: ບານ່າ. Published by The Asia Foundation - Let's Read, ©

The Asia Foundation - Let's Read. Released under CC-BY-4.0.

This work is a modified version of the original story. © The Asia Foundation, 2021. Some rights reserved. Released under

CC-BY-4.0.

For full terms of use and attribution,

<http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/4.0/>

Contributing translators: